

Forensics for the 21st Century

November 8, 2017

Forensics for the 21st Century

Time:

8:30am - Sign-In
9:00am - Start Time

Date:

November 8, 2017

Location:

United States District Court
700 Stewart Street, 19th floor
Seattle, WA 98101

RSVP:

Send an email to Diane_Travis@fd.org with the CLE in the subject line and your bar number for CLE Credits

Free to CJA/FPD

Speakers & Topics

Julia Leighton

Member of the National Commission on Forensic Science, former general counsel for Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia.

Topic:

9:00AM

Litigating Discovery for Pattern Matching

John Ellis

Assistant Federal Defender
Southern District of California.

Topic:

10:45AM

Spying and Lying: Challenging New Surveillance Techniques

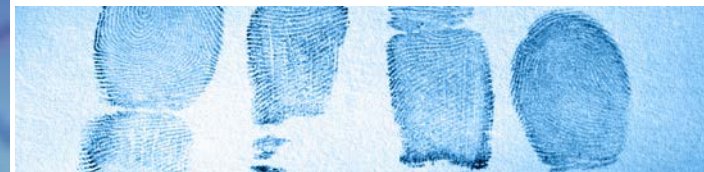

James L. Tranium

Former detective with Metropolitan Police Department of Washington, D.C., presently a private consultant whose work includes review of alleged wrongful conviction cases, with a specialty in false confessions.

Topic:

1:30PM

False Confessions - Recognizing the Hallmarks of a False Confession and Tips for Questioning the Interrogator

Colin Fieman

Senior Litigator, Federal Defender
Western District of Washington.

Topic:

3:00PM

Law Enforcement Hacking and "Network Investigative Techniques": A Primer on Understanding and Challenging the Future of Computer Searches